

France Show 2009

Over 12,000 tickets already taken for The France Show 2009 - we promised you The France Show 2009 would be bigger and better, and the recent surge in people registering for tickets will guarantee just that.

Thousands have been logging on to our website www.thefranceshow.com, where tickets are free until 30 November 2008. In the past week there has been an increase of over 50% in the total number of tickets applied for.

Exhibitors are gearing themselves towards the biggest ever France Show that will see, for the first time in Earl's Court, a Jean-Christophe Novelli Bistro to add to the fantastic Café des Amis and Mon Plaisir restaurants and a special Travel Activity Centre - as well as the UK's largest exhibition of French Property held in the UK and so much more in entertainment, shopping and culture.

Working as our media partner will be the Telegraph Media Group, guaranteeing extensive national coverage. We're looking forward to the crowds, and hope to see you there.

Don't miss out on our FREE ticket offer – time is running out, so book here and now !!
[www.thefranceshow.com/pre-register.aspx]

If you are a member of the press / media then register here: [www.thefranceshow.com/press-registration.aspx]

If you would like to exhibit at The France Show 2009 please contact Debbie Macleod:
Telephone +44 (0)1242 216087